Help Us Say Yes! to Kids!

The Diocese of Algoma is saying Yes! to a bold future for children, youth, and families.

Across the Diocese, there is growing momentum for renewed youth ministry. After a strong youth presence at Synod 2025 and participation in national youth gatherings, leaders across deaneries are working together to reimagine how we support and nurture the next generation.

Through the Say Yes! to Kids campaign, the Diocese is raising funds to support consultation, planning, and youth leadership engagement as it develops a new diocesan strategy for children, youth, and family ministry (CYFM)—set to be presented at Synod 2027.

This is an important moment. With the right support now, we can build a strong, sustainable vision for ministry that will serve young people across Northern Ontario for years to come.
